

School of Fine & Media Arts

Applicant Name _____ Applicant Number _____ Incoming Grade _____

Criteria	1	2 NEEDS IMPROVEMENT	3	4 EXCELLENT	Score #1	Score #2	Score #3
Artistic Technique	Work does not represent any prior knowledge or experience with art form's techniques. Work is rough and incomplete.	Work indicates some understanding and previous experience with art form's techniques. Work is complete but could be better resolved.	Work indicates a strong understanding and deployment of art form's techniques.	Work demonstrates advanced technical skills and experience with the art form.
Engagement & Appreciate of Art Form	Student appears to be nervous, apathetic or generally uncomfortable with chosen art form. Student cannot remain on task.	Moderate statement of appreciation for the art form and a general exuberance of execution and freedom of enjoyment while performing.	Clear statement of appreciation for the art form and a clear exuberance of execution and freedom of enjoyment while performing.	Strong statement of appreciation for the art form and exuberance of execution and freedom of enjoyment while performing. Clearly on task.
Growth Mindset & Problem Solving	Demonstrates a fixed mindset and struggles to adapt to new challenges. Avoids problem-solving or learning opportunities.	Exhibits occasional willingness to embrace challenges. Displays limited problem-solving skills and may shy away from complex tasks.	Demonstrates a growth mindset by actively seeking challenges. Applies problem-solving skills to address moderate challenges effectively.	Consistently maintains a growth mindset. Actively seeks out and tackles complex challenges. Applies a systematic approach to solving problems and encourages innovative solutions in self and others.

Students entering into this conservatory tend to score 3 or higher on all of the above criteria.*

Additional Feedback:
